Tucked away at 4370 B Minto Rd in the cozy town of Castlegar, BC, Maplemirch is one of those rare places where every dish feels like a small adventure. The Maplemirch Menu brings together bold Indian-inspired flavors with a creative Western twist, creating a dining experience that's warm, exciting, and full of surprises. Whether you're stopping by for a casual dinner or looking to impress your taste buds with something new, this restaurant knows how to deliver both comfort and flair on a plate.

The journey usually begins with their soups - each bowl is like an invitation into Maplemirch's kitchen. The Naan 'n' Daal is hearty and comforting, featuring lentils simmered slowly with spices and served with freshly baked naan that's just perfect for dipping. For seafood lovers, the Prawn Bisque is a must-try - creamy, rich, and full of ocean depth, balanced with a hint of spice that warms without overwhelming. These soups aren't just starters; they set the tone for the flavorful ride ahead.

When it comes to sharing, the Shareplates section of the Maplemirch Menu is designed for laughter, conversation, and flavor-packed bites. The Crunchy Crab Bites are a highlight - golden on the outside, tender inside, and served with a tangy dip that keeps you reaching for more. The Chickpea Lettuce Wrap is another winner, bringing freshness and crunch with every bite, while the Fried Chicken Taco and Prawn Taco showcase how Maplemirch infuses international street food with its own spiced charm. The Short Rib Yorkies - tender beef short ribs tucked into mini Yorkshire puddings - are an irresistible fusion of Indian seasoning and Canadian comfort.

If you're a fan of comfort food with a twist, the Poutines here redefine indulgence. The Butter Chicken Poutine is a showstopper, merging creamy curry sauce with crispy fries and squeaky cheese curds - an unforgettable blend of two culinary worlds. The Beef Short Rib Poutine brings slow-cooked richness, while the Curry Chicken and Classic Poutine options offer something for everyone. Each version is a perfect example of Maplemirch's philosophy: familiar favorites, reimaged with bold flavor and soul.

The Naan Flatbreads section of the menu might just steal your heart. Imagine warm, crisp naan layered with creative toppings like Curried Mushroom & Onion, a savory blend that celebrates earthy depth, or Paneer & Jalapeño, which strikes a perfect balance of creamy and spicy. The Andouille & Apricot flatbread is delightfully unexpected - smoky sausage paired with a touch of sweetness - while the BBQ Chicken & Bacon version adds that crowd-pleasing mix of smoky and tangy. Each flatbread feels like a personal pizza with an Indian soul.

For something lighter yet vibrant, the Salads on the Maplemirch Menu are anything but ordinary. The House Greens and Small Greens bring freshness to the table, while the Mung Bean Salad adds a protein-packed, wholesome twist. The Sagar Salad combines crisp textures and bright dressing for a refreshing bite, and the Bombay Cobb reinvents the classic Cobb salad with bold Indian spices and ingredients. Every salad here feels like a celebration of color, crunch, and creativity.

Dining at Maplemirch isn't just about eating - it's about discovery. Each dish on the Maplemirch Menu tells a story of cultures meeting on the same plate, where Indian spices, Canadian comfort, and global street food collide in the most delightful way. The atmosphere at 4370 B Minto Rd matches the food perfectly: inviting, modern, and full of warmth. Whether you're in for the Butter Chicken Poutine that everyone raves about or curious to try their signature Naan Flatbreads, Maplemirch is a place that turns every meal into a flavorful memory.
