Ariccia Sora Lella's menu is a celebration of Roman culinary tradition, offering a curated selection of dishes that reflect the rich heritage of the region. Among the standout offerings is the Cacio e Pepe, a simple yet flavorful pasta dish that embodies the essence of Roman cuisine. Equally noteworthy is the Carbonara, prepared with authentic ingredients that highlight its classic roots.

For those seeking a more comprehensive experience, the restaurant provides tasting menus that showcase a variety of traditional dishes. These include the Polpettine di "Nonna Lella", tender veal meatballs simmered in San Marzano tomato sauce, and the Gnocchi di Patate del Viterbese all'Amatriciana, featuring potato gnocchi with guanciale and pecorino romano. The Saltimbocca alla Romana, with prosciutto and sage, offers a savory main course option.

Vegetarian patrons can enjoy the Parmigiana di Melanzane, a layered eggplant dish with smoked mozzarella and ricotta, or the Panzanella alla Romana, a refreshing bread salad with cherry tomatoes and Gaeta olives. The menu also includes unique offerings like the Rigatoni con Pajata di Vitellino, a traditional dish featuring veal intestines in a rich tomato sauce, and the Paccheri al Sugo di Coda alla Vaccinara, pasta served with oxtail stew.

Accompaniments such as the Carciofo alla Romana and Cicoria Ripassata provide authentic side options, while desserts like the Zuppa Inglese and Crema di Renato offer a sweet conclusion to the meal. The restaurant's commitment to traditional recipes and quality ingredients ensures a dining experience that is both authentic and memorable.
