Nestled in the heart of Colonia del Valle, Matisse Del Valle at Eugenia 111 has a menu that feels like a warm invitation to linger, taste, and return again. The Matisse Del Valle Menu blends comforting Mexican flavors with international touches, offering everything from hearty breakfasts to indulgent pastas, fresh sandwiches, and chef's specials that show off a true passion for flavor.

One of the first things you notice is the generous selection of soups-perfect for starting any meal or enjoying on their own. The Consomé de Pollo con Tallarines, Pollo y Verduras is a clear chicken broth brimming with noodles, tender chicken, and vegetables, the kind of dish that makes you feel cared for. For something classic and homey, the Sopa de Fideo delivers simple yet satisfying flavors, while the Sopa de Tortilla offers that smoky, slightly spicy comfort that's unmistakably Mexican. There's also a touch of European tradition with the Matze Ball Soup and the earthy, beet-forward Sopa Borscht.

If pasta is your love language, the Matisse Del Valle Menu does not disappoint. The Fettuccini a los Cuatro Quesos is rich and creamy, perfectly balanced so it never feels too heavy. For something with a little more intrigue, the Fettuccini Excelsior brings layers of flavor in every bite, while the Fettuccini con Camarones y Setas pairs juicy shrimp with earthy mushrooms for a surf-and-earth delight. The Lasagna Bolognesa is hearty, layered with a slow-cooked meat sauce, while the Ravioles Rellenos de Queso Mascarpone y Ricota con Salsa de Espinaca offer a silky, slightly sweet cheese filling bathed in a spinach sauce that feels both indulgent and fresh.

The sandwich lineup is equally tempting, perfect for a casual lunch or a quick but satisfying bite. The Club Sándwich is a towering stack of crispy bacon, turkey, lettuce, tomato, and mayonnaise, while the Jamón Serrano y Queso feels like a European café moment on your plate. Seafood lovers will gravitate toward the Bagel & Lóx, with silky smoked salmon and cream cheese, while the Salami Kosher and Pastrami

Kosher bring a touch of New York deli tradition right to Mexico City.

Breakfast is a cornerstone here, and the house specials shine. The Huevos “Matisse” are a signature twist that keeps regulars coming back, while Huevos Colorines brighten the morning with vibrant flavors. The Huevos Libaneses add a Middle Eastern flair with spices and accompaniments that feel exotic yet comforting. For those who like a hint of elegance, Huevos Margarita offer a lighter, refined start, while Huevos Tirados bring hearty, rustic satisfaction.

The chef’s suggestions are where creativity really comes through. Tacos Dorados Mixtos are crispy, golden, and generously filled, while the Omelette Florentina is soft, fluffy, and loaded with spinach and cheese. The Huevos Benedictinos are a classic done right, with perfectly poached eggs and a velvety hollandaise sauce. For mains, the Pechuga de Pollo Asada delivers juicy grilled chicken with a simple but flavorful seasoning, and the Carne Asada is tender, smoky, and ideal for meat lovers.

What makes the Matisse Del Valle Menu stand out is how it caters to both comfort-seekers and flavor-adventurers. Whether you come in craving a soul-warming soup, a plate of pasta that feels like a hug, or a breakfast that sets the tone for a great day, you’ll find something that feels like it was made just for you. Every dish carries the warmth of a neighborhood favorite and the attention to detail of a place that takes food seriously, making Matisse Del Valle not just a restaurant, but a delicious part of daily life in Benito Juárez.
